

TAKE IT FROM A PRO

Trumpeter Wynton Marsalis took time out prior to his Chene Park performance Thursday night to visit Detroit's Museum of African American History and give technique tips to some desirous students. LaDonna Logan, 11, gets the master's touch while LaShanna Harris, 12, (left) and Viana Rickett, 11, await their turn.

HUGH GRANNUM
/Detroit Free Press

BRIEFLY

■ Signing: Free Press cartoonist Richard Guindon his new book of cartoons June 19 at the Waldenbooks store in the RenCen, Tower 100, from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. The shop is located in the Atrium on the first level. Also Free Press columnist James Ricci, copies of his book "James Ricci: Look at It This Way," June 17, 7-9 p.m., at Borders Book Shop in Novi Town Center.

■ Performing: Kenn Cox and his Guerilla Jam Band June 18 at 7 p.m. as part of Grosse Pointe's Music on the Plaza series, at Kercheval and St. Clair.

■ Extended: Actors Alliance Summer Theatre School registration extended through June 15. Call 642-1326 anytime.

■ Out: Dick Shafran, after three years as early morning host on WJOL-FM (97.1).

■ Canceled: Dark Carnival, which was set to perform at the Alley Jam in Greektown's Trappers Alley Saturday. Wax and Def Stef perform there tonight; Radio Caroline and Mutant Pass perform Saturday. Call 647-0752, 9-5 weekdays.

■ Postponed: The Grosse Pointe Rose Show at the Neighborhood Club from this weekend to June 19-20.

*Edited by John Smyntek
from staff and wire reports*