The companion book/CD to the Wynton Marsalis PBS series

JAZZ MUSICIAN, COMPOSER, CLASSICAL trumpet virtuoso, educator, Wynton Marsalis is at the top of the musical world. Now he brings all of his talents together in a ground-breaking PBS series. This lively illustrated book-with-CD accompanies the series and is the perfect introduction to the joy of good music—both classical and jazz—for young and old alike.

In chapters that correspond to the four one-hour programs and a Listening Guide and audio CD prepared exclusively for the book, Marsalis uses appealing examples to communicate the fundamentals. Your own pulse, a horn in traffic and a basketball game all add to the description of rhythm. A story about chasing a pet hamster through a shopping mall helps teach sonata form.

Marsalis shows how to hear the variety of rhythmic play in Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite and Duke Ellington's jazz rearrangement of it; how to hear connections between the music of Prokofiev, Gershwin, Ives and Ellington; and traces the links between the classic wind band of John Philip Sousa, Scott Joplin's ragtime, the birth of jazz in New Orleans and the towering achievements of Louis Armstrong—American music at its best.

The book is lavishly illustrated with color and black-and-white photographs and the CD features Seiji Ozawa as conductor, with performances by cellist Yo Yo Ma. Marsalis on Music is the easy and fun way to learn to love "serious" music.
